Understanding the Data

The information is entered (or uploaded) and submitted by the unit. Keep in mind the possibility that something may have been mistyped. If you are viewing a unit's report and question the information for a specific unit, please contact that unit to discuss. If you believe there is a problem with the report generator, please email ibrctech@iupui.edu and we will respond quickly.

These data may be used by corporations and exclusive representation as bargaining comparables.
