2. Within seven (7) school days after receiving the grievance, the Principal shall communicate his/her answer in writing to the grievant.

STEP 3

1. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, the grievant may, within seven (7) school days of receipt of the Principal's answer, submit to the Superintendent a written "Statement of Grievance" signed by the grievant. Copies of this document shall be given to the Principal and the Association.

ARTICLE VIII: OTHER WORK / SUMMER SCHOOL

- A. Extra Work, such as curriculum work that is required to be completed during school break periods including summer will be paid at an hourly rate equivalent to the teacher's hourly rate based on their contract at 7.5 hours per day. This provision also includes attendance at required professional development or training sessions outside the work day or during break periods including summer but excludes activities that have traditionally occurred during meetings such as faculty, PLC, grade level, etc that occur as extension of the school day.
- B. A teacher assigned to teach a summer school class shall be paid for each hour of student instruction on an hourly rate basis. The teacher's regular hourly rate will be computed by dividing the teacher's per diem under the teacher's regular contract by six (6). However, in those circumstances where the summer school class teacher's salary is being paid through a grant, the Superintendent shall have the discretion to compute the teacher's per diem under the teacher's regular contract by seven and one-half (7.5) if necessary in order to adequately staff the grant supported class.
- C. Portions of this provision unrelated to wages are the school's policy, were not bargained, and are included for informational purposes only: With prior notice to the Superintendent's office, a summer school teacher may use leave as provided in this Agreement during the summer school day. Leave time will be deducted in one-half day increments if the class is 3 hours or less. When possible, a teacher shall give at least 24 hours' notice of such leave in order to qualify for use of leave under this provision. Substitutes will be provided on the same basis as during the regular school year.

ARTICLE IX: MISCELLANEOUS

- A. The parties mutually agree that the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement represent the full and complete understanding and commitment between the parties hereto which may be altered, changed, added to, deleted from, or modified only through the voluntary, mutual consent of the parties in an amendment hereto.
- B. Should any Article, Section, or Clause of this Agreement be declared illegal by a court of competent jurisdiction, said Article, Section, or Clause, as the case may be, shall be automatically deleted from this Agreement to the extent that it violates the law, but the remaining Articles, Sections, and Clauses shall remain in full force and effect for the duration of the Agreement, if not affected by the deleted Article, Section, or Clause.
